

National Summit on Micro-Credentials and Professional Accreditation

Thursday, 7th March 2019
The Windsor Hotel, 111 Spring St, Melbourne

Australian Council of Professions

The Unifying Alliance of Professional Associations in Australia

8:00 - 9:00	Registration - Tea & Coffee
9:00 - 9:10	Acknowledgement of Country - Overview & Objectives Wurundjeri Elder & Klaus Veil - President, Australian Council of Professions
9:10 - 9:30	Ministerial Welcome Messages (tbc)
9:30 - 9:50	Keynote: The Role of Micro-Credentials in Skills Capability Assessment A/Professor Marcus O'Donnell - Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Education), Deakin University
9:50 - 10:10	Keynote: Benefits and Disruptions of Micro-Credentials in Educating Professionals The Hon Trish White - National President and Chair, Engineers Australia
10:10 - 10:30	Keynote: Micro-Credentials – Driver of Continual Improvement in Higher Education Professor Susan Elliott AM - Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education), Monash University
10:30 - 10:50	Keynote: Building Australia's Future Workforce through Micro-Credentials Dr Simon Eassom – Executive General Manager Education, CPA Australia
10:50 - 11:10	Lunch
11:10 - 11:30	Micro-Credentialing and the Student Experience Professor Belinda Tynan – Pro Vice Chancellor Education, RMIT University
11:30 - 11:50	The Role of Professional Practice Credentials in Future Proofing the Workforce Glenn Campbell - Executive Director, DeakinCo
11:50 - 12:10	The Australian Quality Framework (AQF) and Micro-Credentials Professor Peter Noonan - Chair, AQF Review Panel & Victoria University
12:10 - 12:30	TEQSA & Accreditation Bodies Perspective on Micro-Credentials Anthony McClaran - CEO, Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA)
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:30	Panel: Success Stories, Failures and Emerging Best Practices in Micro-Credentials Glenn Campbell (DeakinCo), Dr Zlatko Skrbis (ACU), Dr Simon Eassom (CPA Australia), Prof Sally Kift (ALTF), Prof Elizabeth More (AIM), Prof Peter Noonan (AQF Review Chair & VU); Prof Belinda Tynan (RMIT) Facilitator: Rob Thomason - Executive Director, VETASSESS
14:30 - 15:00	Afternoon Tea
15:00 - 16:30	Introduction to Accreditation Rupert Grayston Australian Computer Society (ACS)	Credentials in Current Accreditation Practices Prof Marcus Bowles - Director and Chair The Institute for Working Futures
16:30 - 18:00	Summing-Up, Summit Communiqué & Networking Drinks

Please Register here for the Thursday Summit and the Friday Workshops: Micro-Credentials-Summit.eventbrite.com.au

Summit Proudly Sponsored by:

CPD/CPE Points awarded by:

ENGINEERS
AUSTRALIA

australian computer society

Hands-On Workshops

Friday, 8th March 2019
Deakin Uni, L12, Tower 2, 727 Collins St, Melbourne

Australian Council of Professions

The Unifying Alliance of Professional Associations in Australia

8:00 - 9:00

Registration - Tea & Coffee

Workshop

Micro-Credentialing in the Chartered Process

This hands-on Workshop will build your understanding of the role of micro-credentialing in the chartered process.

9:00 - 10:30

The Workshop is led by Jane Fahey (Senior Manager Professional Practice - DeakinCo) in collaboration with Engineers Australia.

Workshop

Micro-Credentialing in CPD/CPE

This hands-on Workshop will build your understanding of micro-credentialing in CPD/CPE.

The Workshop is led by Dr Asheley Jones (Head Professional Practice and Industry Partnerships - DeakinCo and Chair - AMI Accreditation Committee) in collaboration with the Australian Marketing Institute (AMI).

10:30 - 11:00

Morning Tea

11:00 - 12:30

Workshop – cont.

Workshop – cont.

12:30 - 1:30

Lunch

Workshop Fee: $295 (incl GST)

Please Register here for the Thursday Summit and the Friday Workshops: Micro-Credentials-Summit.eventbrite.com.au

Designed for professionals, professional associations, education and policy makers to lead the adoption of digital credentials in professional accreditation and lifelong learning.

National Summit on Micro-Credentials and Accreditation

Thursday 7 March 2019 | Deakin University
Hotel Windsor 111 Spring St, Melbourne VIC 3000

Register Now

Australian
Council of Professions

